A new collection that captures the austere serenity of the Southwest American desert. Award-winning, Paris-based poet Alice Notley's adventurous new book is inspired by the life of Marie, a woman who resided in the dump outside Notley's hometown in the Southwestern desert of America. In this poetical fantasy, Marie becomes the ultimate artist/poet, composing a codex-calligraphy, writings, paintings, collage-from materials left at the dump. She is a "culture of one." The story is told in long-lined, clear-edged poems deliberately stacked so the reader can keep plunging headlong into the events of the book. Culture of One offers further proof of how Notley "has freed herself from any single notion of what poetry should be so that she can go ahead and write what poetry can be" (The Boston Review).

Watching the kite ascend higher into the sky, ten-year-old Raghav felt butterflies run deep down his gut, inflating his desire to fly high in a supersonic jet. His kite, entangled with another, crashed onto the ground. The flight took off smoothly from the runway of her heart, only to be hit by turbulence and thunderstorms smashing the plane into an abandoned sea full of gloominess. There he saw a lighthouse, a ray of hope. She became his lifeguard and taught him to swim through the storm. Like a guiding angel, she enlightened him towards the path of self-discovery leading to his journey to the island called 'Bollywood.' Raghav rode on a roller coaster encompassing love, passion, and conflicts. Hopping from one town to another in search of his purpose, he landed in the city of love and lights, Paris, where he saw the horizon, an illusion of his world merging with hers. But just like the two poles on Earth never meet, so was his destiny. On one side, he had Diya whom he could never get, and on the other side was Niharika whom he could never lose, and in the midst of all the chaos, he found his treasure. Come along with him to discover his hidden treasure. Who knows! You might find yours too.
