Bugtong Or Filipino Riddles Examples And Answers

For starters, bugtong is a Filipino riddle (palaisipan) that consists of two phrases that rhyme. It uses symbolism to describe a specific object, which the listener can guess by using his imagination. Take the following riddle as an example: Balong malalim, puno ng patalim (Deep well, full of knives) One should never take these words literally.

Riddles are common to all mankind. They delighted the old Aryans and the ancient Greeks as they do the modern Hindu and the Bantu peoples of darkest Africa. Many writers have defined the riddle. Friedreich in his Geschichte des Rathsels, says: "The riddle is an indirect presentation of an unknown object, in order that the ingenuity of the hearer or reader may be exercised in finding it out.... Wolf has given the following definition: the riddle is a play of wit, which endeavors to so present an object, by stating its characteristic features and peculiarities, as to adequately call it before the mind, without, however, actually naming it." If you want a bunch of fun and entertaining riddles to share with children and grownups, this is your book! Highly recommended if you want to see your loved ones giggle, smile and laugh.

Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts (1) We have not used OCR(Optical Character Recognition), as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos. (2) In books where there are images such as portraits, maps, sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images, so they represent accurately the original artefact. Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts, we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy.
